Corvallis, OR 97333

11:00 AM - 02:00 PM PST

Shonnard's Nursery, 541-929-3524

info@shonnards.com

This short class is to showcase some of my favorite perennials that we're growing this fall at Peoria Gardens. Perennials are great for patio pots, hanging baskets, cut flowers, and beautifying the landscape! I'll also give insight into my train-of-thought when ordering plants and planning the plant menu for the year.

When: Saturday, Sept. 20th @ 11:00am

Instructor: Shay Boga, Peoria Gardens – Long Cycle Value Stream Leader & Perennial Production Lead

Where: Shonnard's Nursery Classroom, 6600 SW Philomath Blvd., Corvallis, OR 97333

Register to attend >>

Here to Answer Questions – Saturday 9/20 of Fall Planting Days

Not able to make the class? Come by between 11:30am and 2:00pm on Saturday, September 20th during our Fall Plantings Days weekend, and ask Shay your perennial plant questions!

Instructor Bio:

My name is Shay Boga and I'm the Perennial Production Manager at Peoria Gardens. My passion for horticulture and perennial plants started in 2018 when I did an internship at Peoria Gardens. You could say that my passion for plants bloomed later in life, but I've been obsessed with learning about perennials since starting to work at Peoria. I worked my way up from intern to Perennial Shipping Lead to Perennial Production Manager; the entirety of my career at Peoria has been in the perennial area.

In my free time, I love working in the garden with my cat and partner. We have a beautiful perennial cut flower garden that I like to make floral arrangements with to have fresh flowers around the house. My cat is a great assistant! When not in the garden or at work, I enjoy rock climbing, backpacking, going to ecstatic dance or moving my body to music, and going for ice cream after dinner and walking along the waterfront.

Grand Opening and Ribbon Cutting: Slipstream Clay and Green Heron Gallery at the Philomath Arts Building
1233 Main St
Philomath, OR 97370

05:00 PM - 07:00 PM PST

Vicki Wilson, 5037307577

vicki.lynn.wilson@hotmail.com

An unexpected move for Slipstream Clay Studio has become an opportunity to add an artist gallery and a ceramic supply shop. The new shop at 1233 Main St, Philomath, Oregon 97370 is being called the Philomath Arts Building and houses all three art endeavors. Join us for a Grand Opening Celebration on October 4th, 2025 from 5-7pm and find us on the Philomath Open Studios Tour on the last two weekends in October.

The newly formed Green Heron Gallery occupies about 1/3 of the building and is co-operatively run by its artist members. Started with nine local painters, sculptors, ceramicists and mixed media artists, the gallery is changing and growing day by day. "We intend to add a rotating exhibition of artists from the Corvallis Art Guild and the Willamette Ceramics Guild, as well as an invited artist area. We want to keep the work fresh so that art lovers will stay engaged with our very talented art community" says Wilson. The current members are: Sandy Wilson, Jennifer Jo Deily, Avie Meadows, Beth Kattleman, Jess Felix, Vicki Wilson, Debra Garley, Jennifer Lommers and Sandy Roumagoux.

Slipstream Clay Studio students and members can be seen working away in the adjacent studio. Wilson is currently offering eight week courses and a series of one session "Try-It" classes. Registration is online at www.slipstreamclay.com. Since the studio has a limited capacity, those who can't get into a class can order a take-home kit for a specific project. They can make a project with a video tutorial, or work independently. Firing is included.

Ceramics artists can also shop in the Slipstream supply store, located in the front of the studio. This store features Cone 6 Stoneware and porcelain clay and glazes. Slipstream is becoming a distributor for Georgies Ceramic and Clay in Portland, Oregon. "It's a funny kind of full circle for me, having been employed by Georgies nearly 30 years ago, when I was in school, and then using these products ever since. I never thought I'd be at the register again.", says Wilson.

How it happened: In June of this year, Vicki Wilson was celebrating one year in her Corvallis countryside ceramics teaching studio but already felt like she could do more in her new hometown. It started with the idea of a cooperatively run gallery space in a vacant property on Main St.-the former "Sew It Seams" fabric store. It was likely going to be short term, but within the week of a chance meeting with Autumn Peterson, owner of Summer Beam Books, a buyer had been found for the property. Christina White wanted to invest in Philomath Main Street and wanted to give Wilson the opportunity to bring an art presence to the building. Keys and paperwork were exchanged in just a few weeks and Wilson moved the ceramics studio portion in right away. Wilson remarks, "This felt like the stars aligning. I had to go for it. There was a place I remember from years ago called Mainly Clay in Farmville, Virginia. It's a clay studio on the Main St of a small town with a gallery and supply shop. I remember it being such a hub for the community and I have dreamed of doing it ever since. I still can't quite believe it's happening!"

Techniques for Growing a Resilient Garden & Landscape at Shonnard's Nursery

If there is one word that describes our recent past and immediate future, it is change.

Our landscaping and gardening techniques need to adapt too, so it's time for us to discover more responsible and sustainable ways to grow plants.

Look forward to learning new approaches and techniques to make your lawn, landscape, and garden adaptable and resilient to the increasing severity of wet, drought, and fire.

Presenter: Darren Morgan

Day & Time: Sunday, October 19th at 10:30am

Location: Shonnard's Nursery Classroom
